Hi FTS, the 2010 Fly Schedule is another good one!

We start the season with a cool Winter Series. We found out the chilly, short days won't bother your Tipplers at all in the central and south parts of the country, there may still be a few days that are a little too cold in the north. Just don't feed your kit too well or it will be over-fly city.

The season schedule was designed because of requests from you to keep the fly dates every other week, but one. Sorry we couldn't schedule the dates that the hawks won't be around.

Our fly season is 16 competitions long with no requirement on a flyer to participate in each fly (no one's done it yet). It's designed so that any flyer or local club anywhere in the USA may take advantage of local weather conditions to fly whenever and as much as possible. Each fly has two dates, you may fly on either Saturday or Sunday; whichever day is most convenient for you or your kit. You may put up a kit of young, old or mixed aged Tipplers, whatever you have available and competition ready. Each fly successfully completed under FTS rules in either Official or Honor system and of 6 or more hours receives a diploma. And, each Series awards an aggregate diploma. So, customize your own fly schedule of from one to sixteen flies and enjoy yourself, family, Tipplers, timer(s) and friends.

As you will notice and please remember, Monday is the first day of the week in this very special FTS Fly Schedule Calendar.
